If you're planning on continuing your education at another four-year college or university, the liberal arts and sciences: humanities program might be for you. By careful selection of elective credits, you will be qualified to enter a baccalaureate program as a third-year student in a wide variety of fields. The program also serves an exploratory function if you have not decided on a field of study or a specific career.

ADVANTAGES

- The liberal arts and sciences: humanities program prepares students for life by stressing the importance of reading, writing, and thinking while developing in them an appreciation of the arts and the wisdom of great minds.
- Colleges, universities, and large corporations are increasingly emphasizing the importance of a liberal arts education upon which to build a career.

DIRECT ENTRY INTO BACCALAUREATE DEGREE PROGRAMS

Alfred State liberal arts and sciences: humanities graduates may enter directly into either the interdisciplinary studies BTEch or the technology management BBA degree program.
